

Refugees in Motion

The project aims at establishing initiatives for the social integration of refugees in different cities/regions in Niedersachsen. Young people (refugees and Germans) are invited to express their image of cultural diversity and social justice using artistic formats like short film, music, foto, theater, etc. The artistic results will later be presented at an official event.

The project tries to dismantle cultural barriers, leading to a common ground based on understanding and acceptance.

Video: Refugees in Motion - The Project